

The
Handwritten Touch
Write Cards with Pizzazz

Steps to write with Pizzazz.

A quick recap of the steps you take to write a card with your personal pizzazz.

First steps.

- Decide who you're writing.
- Decide why you're writing.

Tips for the outside flap of the card.

- Decide what you're going to say on the cover of the card. Congratulations, Thank you, Love you, You're amazing, Glad you made it...
- Choose the card you want to use. Make it easy on yourself, buy a pack or few.
- Choose the pen you want to use. Bolder ink is prettier. You can use colored pencils/pens, bold or fine tip markers, pens or pencils...
- Practice it several ways on scrap paper & Pick a version you like.
- Practice it on scrap paper the same size as your card or envelope.
- Actually write it on your card — moment of truth!

Tips for the inside of the card.

- Remember: this is the where your real pizzazz shines through!
- Think again about the who & why of your card - What do you want to say? And, how do you actually talk?
- Write your message that is the way you actually talk...that's what makes you, you.

Bonus steps for the envelope.

- Practice writing their name on for the envelope in a pretty way.
- Write it on the envelope.
- Write address in block letters. Leave room below the address for the USPS bar code, if applicable.
- Write your own name on the flap on back in a pretty way.
- Mail that card/note/letter!

Take the next step!

And, now that you've seen this mini-course, check out "Pretty Penmanship - Unlock the Secrets to Gorgeous Handwriting" to show your personality in your handwriting? Aren't you tired of thinking your writing looks like chicken scratch? Check it out here!